Description:

Flightcase for one laptop with 15"

With the ROADINGER Laptop Case your 15" laptop is always well protected. You can transport one laptop in the main compartment. The two additional slots are suitable for accessories such as external hard drives or power supplies and cables.

The high-quality finish is highlighted by the multi-layered glued wood and the robust carrying handle.

The necessary stability is supplied by the aluminium profile frame and the three-legged, small steel ball corners. The two lockable snap locks additionally protect your laptop from unauthorized access.
