Description:

You are the steersman!

A day without sunshine is like a show without spots: it is not perfect. Light is simply in the bag. But concerning shows you need more than just some lights. To really stage the spots right and to bring them into effect, a light control is indispensable. We now offer you a control for smaller occasions, so that your party room or your performance as solo entertainer is presented in the proper light: the MINI-4S. With this device you can comfortably run four spotlights. The movements are sound-controlled via a built-in microphone and the speed can be adjusted. Our MINI-4S will help you to experience a successful evening. You should really try it!
