Description:

The artificial hop garland from Europalms is ideal as a decoration for catering establishments that want to radiate rustic charm and natural coziness. With dark green leaves and delicately designed hop blossoms, the 170 cm long garland lends any room a harmonious, natural look and creates a warm, inviting atmosphere that invites you to linger. It can be bent flexibly and adapts effortlessly to tables, counters or walls. After use, the hop tendril can be rolled up again to save space, making it a practical and versatile solution. Whether as a country-style decoration, for beer gardens or events - the hop garland emphasizes an authentic character and creates an unmistakable feel-good flair. Thanks to its high-quality workmanship and easy-care handling, it is durable and always a decorative eye-catcher.
