Description:

Originally native to South Africa and the Canary Islands, the plant owes its names to the exotic appearance of its flowers - birds of paradise. As a decorative element for your living rooms or offices, it also meets the highest demands. The large, leathery leaves resemble those of the banana plant and are made of high-quality tarpaulin with the typical leaf embossing. Three open flowers in bright colours complete the impressive appearance of the 90 cm high plant. The flower comes in a basic gardener's pot, which gives the plant a stable stand when placed in a planter. Optionally, we recommend treating the flower at regular intervals with a UV protection spray so that you can enjoy your artificial plant for a long time.
