Description:

Complete the decoration of your Halloween or theme party with the magic book of Europalms. Will the magic book reveal its well-kept secrets or is it really cursed? On the cover of the book there is a ghost tree barking its teeth. As soon as you get too close to the book, eerie sounds sound and a mysterious play of light shimmers through the semi-transparent cover of the cover. Stay on your guard so it doesn't cast a spell over you! The animation of the book dummy is activated by an integrated microphone or wired manual control on the back of the book.
