Description:

What makes a typical clown?
At least the external characteristics, such as brightly colored clothes, oversized shoes and the typical make-up, also apply to Charly. But beware: he is neither humorous nor empathetic!

With a height of approx. 164 cm, Charly is an imposing figure. With his colorful clothes and huge bow tie, he follows circus tradition, but his long hair in poisonous neon green is a clear warning. His white face with clown paint in bright, flashy colors reinforces his sinister aura. The open mouth reveals fangs that would do a vampire proud.
During the animation, the eyes of the decorative figure flash red, the arms move and the head performs circular movements while Charly insults all visitors with wild curses (various voicelines).

The animation of the decorative figure can be activated using the integrated microphone/light sensor, the "Step here" switch pad or wired, manual control.
